

S2 Exam of Study Skills

Student full name:.....Group: .....

Activity 1: Define the following terms.*(04 pts)*1-Active revision

To actively interact with the studied material and making it meaningful instead of reading or copying the material passively.

2- Exam taking strategies

Techniques and strategies used by the students while taking an exam to ensure the best results.

Activity 2 Fill in the gaps with appropriate information.*(04 pts)

- 1- Students can improve their memorization by using state dependent memory/ schematizing/ assigning meaningfulness/ practicing and repeating/ activating the five senses/reciting aloud/ practicing questions/ sleeping on it.
- 2- Active revision involves summarizing/organizing information/preparing model answers/ searching real life examples/ discussing materials with others.
- 3- Good preparation/ arriving early to the exam hall/ sitting well/ breathing well / thinking positively and practicing positive self talk are two strategies to deal with test anxiety.
- 4- Academic disagreements in class or study group discussions may benefit the learner to develop asking relevant questions, reflecting well on topics, arguing for their points of view and seeing things from different perspectives.

Activity3: The following diagram represents a revision strategy.*(04pts)

- a- Describe the strategy.
- b- Briefly discuss its usefulness.

The strategy is practicing and repeating.

Key words: improve memorization/ repetition at spaced intervals/frequently reviewing information/

Activity 4: Discuss the following statements briefly.

(08pts)

For each statement:

Form (02 pts) : correct language, coherence, cohesion and punctuation.

Content (02pts) : logical order, relevance of information and good argumentation.

1- Students at university should interact and engage actively with the materials they study.

Key words : actively involving the brain while studying and revising

The use of summarizing/organizing information/preparing model answers/ searching real life examples/ discussing materials with others

2- Exam preparation is an elaborate process in which many aspects need to be taken into consideration.

Key words : taking into consideration the following aspects: materials to study/techniques of studying/ time planning/ environment/concentration and distractions/ mental and physical state/ possible problems.