National People's Army (الجيش الوطني الشعبي)

The National People's Army is the military organization responsible for developing and defending the nation's defense potential. Its permanent mission is to safeguard national independence and defend national sovereignty. It is responsible for defending the country's unity and territorial integrity, including its land, air, and maritime domains.

Peaceful Settlement of Disputes (تسوية النزاعات بطرق سلمية)

Algeria strives to settle international disputes by peaceful means. It promotes peaceful negotiations, mediation, arbitration, and other peaceful methods to resolve conflicts between nations without resorting to war or armed aggression.

Solidarity with Peoples (تضامن مع الشعوب)

Algeria stands in solidarity with all peoples who are struggling for political and economic liberation, the right to self-determination, and against racial discrimination. It supports the aspirations of oppressed peoples and works towards their freedom and equality.

International Cooperation (التعاون الدولي)

Algeria works to strengthen international cooperation and develop friendly relations between states. It emphasizes equality, mutual interest, and non-interference in internal affairs as the basis for international relations. Algeria subscribes to the principles and objectives outlined in the United Nations Charter.
